SPACE COMBAT

- WHY IS THIS BIT SO  HARD???
- Most complex part of the game
- Difficult to balance RPG with Elite: Dangerous
- Multiple abortive rewrites have been done
- Basically, at the moment it's in a bit of a mess
- But the rewritten bits are working well! Yay!
- Four levels of detail – see next slides

ROLEPLAY THE SCENARIO

- Least amount of stats actually needed
- Doesn't use any counters or stuff
- Can use as many stats as the players want to
- Narrative based and easier to integrate into an RPG session
- Downside – could take a long time to play through

SIMPLE RULES

- Minimal stats used
- Visual elements – counters and/or miniatures
- Simple enough to use cards to hold all the required stats?
- No complex charging, power or heat management concepts
- “Pick up and play” concept – play a standalone combat game in 30 mins if you want to. If that’s possible...

INTERMEDIATE RULES (CONCEPTUAL)

- Add more elements to the stats used
- Upgradeable items
- Class and Rating modifiers to default stats
- Differences between vehicle sizes

ADVANCED RULES (CONCEPTUAL)

- Add even more elements to the stats used
- Power allocation and management
- Heat management
- Recharging and reloading
