PROGRESS

 - Still waiting for word back from Frontier on license
- Dave:
 - Writing the long-form version of the VCS and integrating it into the RPG. Basically writing an instruction manual

The background is a vibrant cyberpunk scene. A large, glowing red planet dominates the upper center. Below it, a dark spaceship with orange engine flames is shown from a low angle. The scene is filled with futuristic buildings, neon lights, and a grid-like pattern. A bright orange beam of light cuts across the left side. In the bottom right, a small screen displays a target icon.
